A woman with long, wavy brown hair is smiling and looking towards the camera. She is wearing a light green long-sleeved kurta with intricate floral embroidery in pink, purple, and gold. The embroidery is concentrated around the neckline and on the sleeves. She is also wearing a maroon dupatta with a gold and white geometric pattern. Her accessories include large blue and gold earrings, a large gold ring with a central stone, and a matching gold bracelet. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with green foliage and a brick wall.
